• If you dial 911 from your cell phone, it will go to Char/Meck EMS, not Campus Police.

LET CAMPUS POLICE HELP YOU:

  o They can direct EMS personnel to your site quicker.
  o They have first aid and AED equipment with them

  o Before assisting the victim, contact Campus Police or make sure someone is doing it for you. You can also use “Live Safe” or one of the emergency call boxes.
• You don’t have to be trained to use an AED. The machine will tell you what to do and let you know if it’s safe to use the AED on a victim.
• There are many classes and videos available to train you on CPR and AED use. The Red Cross and the American Heart Association both have great options. If you can, take a CPR/AED course!

• Full version of the emergency evacuation plan is located on the EH&S website.

SHELTER IN PLACE

You may need to shelter in place to minimize exposure to outside risks such as:
• Weather
• Violent or criminal behavior in the area
• Dangerous air quality due to the accidental or intentional release of hazardous materials

Follow all instructions given by the University.
  o Make sure you’re signed up to receive emergency messages from the University. Go to: www.unccharlottealerts.com o Watch the Active Shooter and Violence on Campus videos on the Campus Police website.

PERSONAL SAFETY

• Be aware of your circumstances at all times.
• Avoid being in the building late at night or on the weekends by yourself.
• Try to schedule rehearsal times with a friend.
• Use “Live Safe”, “SafeWalk” and “SafeRide.”
• Report any unusual activity/persons to Campus Police.
  o Trust your instincts. Call Campus Police if you are the least bit suspicious. They would rather you call them and be wrong than ignore a potential problem.
  o If you find someone in a space that’s not supposed to be there, call Campus Police. Don’t confront them yourself.
• Make sure to close all doors securely when you enter or exit.
• Don’t let people in. If they’re supposed to be in the building, they will already have card access.
