MINOR in ARCHITECTURAL HISTORY + CRITICISM

The Minor in Architectural History and Criticism is open to students of any major and requires completion of 18 credit hours of coursework as defined below. Students must maintain a minimum grade point average of 3.0 in all courses counted toward the minor. Students may double count up to 9 credit hours of the minor towards their major.

Bachelor of Arts in Architecture students:

Prerequisites to apply for acceptance into the minor:
- ARCH 4201 – History of Architecture I, Prehistory to 1750 (with a minimum grade of B)*
- ARCH 4202 – History of Architecture II, 1750-1960 (with a minimum grade of B)*

18 credits of coursework as follows:
- ARCH 4203 – History of Architecture III, Contemporary Theory*
- ARCH 4600 – Architectural History and Criticism Methodologies
- ARCH 4204/4205 – Architectural History / Theory Topics (6 credits minimum)*
- pre-approved related coursework (6 credits minimum)

* Courses also required for the Bachelor of Arts in Architecture major

Non-School of Architecture students:

6 credits of prerequisites to apply for acceptance to the minor (which count towards the minor):
- ARCH 4201 – History of Architecture I, Prehistory to 1750 (with a minimum grade of B)
- ARCH 4202 – History of Architecture II, 1750-1960 (with a minimum grade of B)

12 credits of coursework as follows:
- ARCH 4203 – History of Architecture III, Contemporary Theory
- ARCH 4600 – Architectural History and Criticism Methodologies
- ARCH 4204/4205 - Architectural History / Theory Topics (6 credits minimum)